“The Comedy Club” @ The Greenbrier Presents:

B.T.

BT was born, raised and beaten in the Wonderful settings of Muskogee, Oklahoma. So yes, that's right he's an Okie from Muskogee.

Once in college, that's where he first tried stand-up comedy and the rest is history. Knowing that life could only get better, BT left The University of Oklahoma with a degree and dreams of Show Business. After living in Chicago, Dallas and the backseat of his Nissan Sentra, BT finally settled down in the city of dreams, Los Angeles.

Since the time this "Okie from Muskogee" left his home state, he has performed in over 43 states, 3 countries, and has been seen in numerous television shows from the Sci-Fi channels "Black Scorpion", to the critically acclaimed HBO movie "Suckers".

In an act that crosses all boundaries, BT can be seen at any of the many comedy clubs around the country or in any of the different channels of entertainment ranging from commercials to movies.

Catch this versatile entertainer as his star continues to rise.
