60 Days of Holiday Cheer

Familiar carols echo off the walls of ballrooms that have welcomed guests for more than 100 years. Children laugh while chewing on a chocolate chip cookie, trying to muster the courage to sit on Santa's lap to relay their wish list. Mom and dad sip hot chocolate by a cozy fire, gazing in wonderment at the glowing lights adorning freshly cut fir trees.

From Nov. 3, 2017 through Jan. 5, 2018, America's Resort celebrates our spectacular 60 Days of Holiday Cheer, an annual two-month holiday observance that includes entertainment, activities, food and elaborate decorations to mark the holiday season.

More than 100 Christmas trees are exquisitely adorned throughout the property, along with more than 2,000 poinsettias. In the Lower Lobby, the annual chocolate display is created out of more than 1,000 pounds of delectable chocolate, and more than 120,000 lights adorn trees, bushes, doors and tables throughout the 11,000-acre estate.

Special events are held to celebrate each specific holiday throughout the 60 days. Thanksgiving includes the annual Golden Feather Fetch Scavenger Hunt, a 5K run, a Thanksgiving Day Feast, the Gobbler Gala Dinner Party and much more.

Christmas features the 5K Jingle Run, the Jingle Bell Parade and the Gingerbread Ball, while New Year's Eve is the day for the Resolution Run, Soiree '18, The Casino Club Party and Kid's Big Night Out Dinner Party. New Year's Day starts off right with a giant New Year's Day Breakfast.

But the fun and excitement isn't limited to the holidays themselves.

Tree lighting ceremonies are held each Saturday from Thanksgiving through Christmas, bringing guests and visitors together on the front lawn around the giant tree. A perennial favorite for families, the celebration includes caroling, hot chocolate and a visit from Santa Claus, who lights up The Greenbrier on his command.

Looking for fun on your own? No problem. With more than 50 indoor and outdoor activities, there's something for everyone at The Greenbrier.

In addition to the popular year round activities such as off-road driving, bunker tours, indoor swimming and the gun club, unique wintertime offerings help your family embrace the season. From sleigh rides around the property to ice skating on the outdoor rink, savoring homemade peppermint ice cream at Draper's, sipping hot chocolate by an indoor or outdoor fire or holiday movies in the theatre, The Greenbrier helps erase the winter doldrums with entertainment your family will include as part of its holiday memories for years to come.

For the kids, there are special workshops on juggling, cookie decorating, balloon making and more, and family entertainment shows feature ventriloquists and magicians.

"We welcome everyone to join in our 60 Days of Holiday Cheer," said Dr. Jill Justice, President of The Greenbrier. "Whether you are here with your family for the day or staying for a romantic weekend, you will have a magical time. Our 60 Days of Holiday Cheer incorporates new and old traditions from The Greenbrier's rich history, making it a wonderful place to spend this holiday season."

Thanksgiving at The Greenbrier is the perfect combination of family, food and fun. From scavenger hunts to fun runs – and of course mouthwatering feasts your family will be talking about for years to come – America's Resort provides a cornucopia of activities to create a holiday to remember.

On Thursday, November 23, Thanksgiving weekend begins with the Turkey Tail 5K Fun Run, which starts at the North Entrance at 8 a.m., and features an enjoyable run throughout the picturesque property.

With the exercise out of the way, it's time for some nourishment, and the Thanksgiving Day Brunch provides that and more, as The Greenbrier's culinary brigade serves up a brunch that features traditional holiday fare and other southern favorites inside Colonial Hall.

THANKSGIVING

The brunch – available for both overnight guests and day guests for a cost of $79 per adult and $45 per child (6-10) – includes an artisanal baked bread display complete with Greenbrier cornbread, pumpkin muffins and cranberry cake. The chilled and displayed creations include chilled shrimp cocktail, marinated mussels, crab claws, a smoked seafood display, an international cheese display and an iceberg lettuce salad. Hot breakfast selections include sausage, bacon, ham and eggs Benedict, as well as omelet and waffle stations.

Chef carved stations feature turkey and prime rib, and a low country boil includes clams, mussels, corn, potatoes, sausage, lobster and shrimp.

If it's pasta you crave, the brunch buffet keeps you satisfied with tortellini, rigatoni and gnocchi, along with a variety of sauces and proteins. Hot lunch selections include she crab soup and southern fried chicken.

Side items are crucial to a Thanksgiving meal, and The Greenbrier culinary team doesn't disappoint with mashed potatoes, grits, squash, sweet potatoes, stuffing and more to fill out your plate.

What would Thanksgiving be without dessert? With everything from Greenbrier bread pudding to classic pumpkin pie, cinnamon cheesecake and vanilla and pumpkin ice cream, your sweet tooth is satisfied.

The celebration doesn't stop when the sun sets on Thursday, either.

On Friday, November 24, The Greenbrier hosts the 17th Annual Golden Feather Fetch Scavenger Hunt throughout the 11,000-acre property. Beginning at 3:00pm, the event, which is a benefit for area food banks, is fun for both children and adults and a great way to experience more of The Greenbrier's magnificent landscape.

A "Cocktails for the Feast" mixology class is held at 5:00pm that same day. The Greenbrier's Director of Beverages, Brian McClure, and his team of mixologists help guests craft two legendary cocktails to celebrate the season.

The Gobbler Gala Dinner Party from 6:00pm until 9:00pm in Colonial Hall brings the evening to a conclusion. The festive and scrumptious buffet feast for the entire family includes lively music, jugglers and balloon artists.

The extensive menu for the Gala features breads, seafood, pork loin, whipped potatoes, West Virginia trout, ham, beef tenderloin, pecan pie and much more. There is also a children's menu complete with chicken noodle soup, mac n' cheese, fresh fruit and cookies.

End the weekend by getting in the Christmas spirit with the first Saturday Tree Lighting of the season. On November 25 at 6:45pm, hot chocolate and caroling help welcome Santa Claus to The Greenbrier, and Saint Nick lights up the giant tree on the Front Lawn on his command.

Families can also get a jump start on Christmas cards, as photos with Santa are available in the Upper Lobby on Saturday and Sunday from noon until 2:00pm

All of this, in addition to the daily activities such as falconry, Segway tours, tennis, trunk shows, children's story time, workshops, Jeep adventures and much more, make Thanksgiving at The Greenbrier a can't miss event.

CHRISTMAS

Whether sitting by a roaring fire listening to The Greenbrier Springhouse Entertainers sing traditional holiday favorites or bundling up inside a blanket for a sleigh ride throughout the festively-lit property, it's impossible not to get into the spirit when you spend Christmas at America's Resort.

Christmas at The Greenbrier really begins even before Thanksgiving with the 60 Days of Holiday Cheer, but the festivities reach a new level on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

It all starts bright and early Christmas Eve with the 5K Jingle Run, beginning at the North Entrance at 8:00am. That's followed by The Jingle Bell Parade, which begins at the Front Entrance at 5:00pm.

At 6:00pm, the Christmas Eve Gingerbread Ball in Colonial Hall brings the entire family together for an evening filled with live music, family photographs, caricaturists and balloon artists, as well as a visit from the guests of honor, Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus.

An extensive Dinner Buffet assures you're not tucked into bed with an empty stomach. An artisanal bread display includes corn bread, caramelized onion foccacia and spiced pecan butter, while a cold food display features sushi, shrimp cocktail and salads.

On the hot food display is everything from citrus brined chicken to baby back ribs, as well as lobster mac n' cheese and seafood penne pasta.

The extensive list of sides features grilled asparagus, corn pudding and smoked Gouda grits, while an action station includes lamb, sausages and prime rib.

For a sweet ending, The Greenbrier's culinary team provides everything from a peanut butter chocolate Yule log to candy cane cheesecake, strawberry pie and banana rum cake.

On the children's menu are salad, fried chicken, mac n'cheese, corn and broccoli, with cookies, brownies and cupcakes to finish the meal with a bang.

Christmas Day begins with a worship service in The Greenbrier Chapel. This non-denominational Christmas service, which begins at 11:00am, is led by Rev. Betsy Walker and the West Virginia Brass Ensemble.

If you miss the service, or just want to hear more, the West Virginia Brass Ensemble is back at The Greenbrier Chapel at 3 p.m. for an hour concert, and the Christmas Cantata provides more music inside the beautiful chapel at 5:00pm.

The celebration ends with hot chocolate and cookies in the Upper Lobby at 8:30pm.

For those who aren't quite ready to let the season come to an end, The Greenbrier will present the Nutcracker Ballet on Thursday, December 28 and Friday, December 29 at 3:00pm. in Colonial Hall. The Beckley Dance Theatre is on hand to perform this holiday favorite.

DREAM TREE FOR KIDS

For the seventh consecutive year, America's Resort will be donating more than $1 million in toys to local and national charities for its "Dream Tree for Kids" holiday gift drive. The project helps to ensure that children throughout West Virginia and beyond wake up Christmas morning with at least one special gift to unwrap.

Organizations who qualified to receive gifts will be at The Greenbrier in mid-December to pick up the gifts and distribute them to those in need. In 2016, more than 100 organizations qualified, and more than 33,000 toys were prepared for distribution. Volunteers worked more than 1,700 hours and used nearly 29,000 feet of wrapping paper to wrap the more than 13,000 presents that were distributed along with almost 20,000 unwrapped gifts. This year promises to be bigger, and bolder than ever.

The "Dream Tree for Kids" is a part of The Greenbrier's ongoing commitment to serve the community and its citizens.

NEW YEAR'S EVE

Say goodbye to 2017 and welcome in 2018 by spending New Year's at America's Resort. Whether you're 6 or 86, or anywhere in between, New Year's at The Greenbrier is the perfect way to start the year off right.

The festivities begin on New Year's Eve with the Resolution Run 5K beginning at the North Entrance. As the sun sets on 2017, guests are treated to the musical talents of The Hod O'Brien Quartet while The Greenbrier sommeliers serve the finest wines tableside to perfectly pair with the meal. Reservations for this dinner, priced at $95 per person, begin at 5:30pm. After dinner, head to the Casino Club Party to ring in the New Year with dancing and music by Key Note. Exclusively for overnight guests and members 21 years of age and older, this complimentary event runs from 10:30pm until 2:30am.

The biggest New Year's Eve party around, Soiree '18, is reserved for registered overnight guests and members of The Greenbrier Sporting Club. This black tie event inside the Chesapeake Room and Colonial Hall features an extensive buffet with carved beef, lobster Newburg, trout, lasagna, roasted chicken, saffron risotto, salads, cheeses, seafood, Low Country boil, sushi, desserts and much more. Music is provided by The Ray Caddell Orchestra, and bottled wine are available for purchase in advance.

Unsure of what to do with the children? The Kids' Big Night Out Dinner Party has you covered. From 7:00pm. until midnight, the Exhibit Hall is filled with food, music, arts and crafts and jolly jumps. Presented and supervised by the Adventure Zone counselors, the menu includes all of the favorites like spaghetti, grilled chicken, chicken fingers, pizza, mashed potatoes, mac n' cheese and ice cream sandwiches, and children are entertained from start to finish.

One Healthy Partnership.

The Greenbrier is excited to announce a new partnership between The Greenbrier Clinic and WVU Medicine that brings many of the brightest medical minds and top technology in West Virginia together at America's Resort, an institution built on healing from its beginnings more than 250 years ago.

The partnership with a nationally recognized academic medical center and medical school, ranked 6th in the nation by Vizient, will allow the physicians at The Greenbrier Clinic, which has been providing a premier executive physical program since 1948, to refer patients to some of the top experts in specific fields for extended treatment, enhancing the service provided to those executive physical patients.

New services are also offered on a periodic basis to the executive patients at The Greenbrier Clinic, including Neurology, Rheumatology, Hematology/Oncology and expanded Gastroenterology.

In addition, The Greenbrier Clinic has converted its information system to the EPIC system, used by WVU Medicine and top academic medical centers throughout the country, allowing for a more seamless sharing of information.

WVU Medicine became the official sports medicine provider for The Greenbrier earlier this year, providing training services for events such as the Houston Texans Training Camp, The Greenbrier Classic and The Greenbrier Champions Tennis Classic.
