WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS

About

Since 1778, White Sulphur Springs has provided the ultimate respite for travelers searching for adventure and relaxation in the mountains. Guests first came to “take the waters” of the natural sulfur springs, and today a tradition of beauty, hospitality and service continues to draw visitors from around the globe to the 11,000-acre property known as America’s Resort™.

AMERICA’S RESORT®

A Four— Season Resort

With four unique seasons, The Greenbrier is the ultimate destination any time of the year. Spring brings mild temperatures and exquisite floral, while summer offers warm days and cool nights, as well as lush green throughout the property. Fall provides a canvas of yellow, red and orange with incredible autumn foliage, while winter brings blankets of white on the snow-covered mountains.

Event Space

More than 200,000 square feet of event space is available to groups. The largest space, Colonial Hall, is 16,128 square feet. Both indoor and outdoor venues are available, including The Greenbrier Sports Performance Center, which regularly hosts NFL Training Camps, and Center Court at Creekside, a 2,500-seat tennis stadium, which can also be used as an amphitheater. A recently renovated Conference Center provides ample space and technology to fill the needs of every group.

Activities

More than 55 indoor and outdoor activities are available to guests of all ages and interests. Whether your idea of the perfect day includes relaxation or the ultimate in adventure, you'll find it all at The Greenbrier.

Dining

The Greenbrier's excellence is perhaps best exemplified by the exceptional dining experiences offered in our 20 restaurants, cafes, bars and lounges, including in-room dining. Our restaurants feature offerings from various styles of cuisine, and the experience is perfectly crafted to satisfy even the most discerning palate.

Rooms

Whether your trip to The Greenbrier is an intimate getaway for two or a hearty gathering of hundreds, you will find a myriad of choices available. Retail

The Greenbrier's extraordinary collection of stores and boutiques features an unparalleled assortment of signature gifts, toys, furniture, sporting goods, fine jewelry, shoes and luxury apparel, as well as hand-made favorites at the Art Colony Shops.

Golf

For more than a century, The Greenbrier has been synonymous with world-class golf and has hosted the Ryder Cup, Solheim Cup and the PGA TOUR. With options from the historic Old White Course to the recently reconfigured Meadows Course, a 9-hole Greenbrier Course and a new par 3 adventure, as well as expert instruction and indoor simulations, the golf experience at America's Resort is unrivaled.

Spa

Since 1778, guests have traveled to The Greenbrier to “take the waters” and bathe in the sulfur springs. Today, The Greenbrier’s world-renowned mineral spa offers a variety of services designed to provide relaxation and comfort.

Wintertime

Whether its gliding gracefully around the ice skating rink, listening to the bells jingle during a sleigh ride through the snow or exploring the frozen trails in a Jeep Rubicon, a trip to America's Resort during the winter months is a unique experience. Special programming, activities and culinary offerings that take full advantage of the season make wintertime at The Greenbrier a must-visit destination.

Nightlife

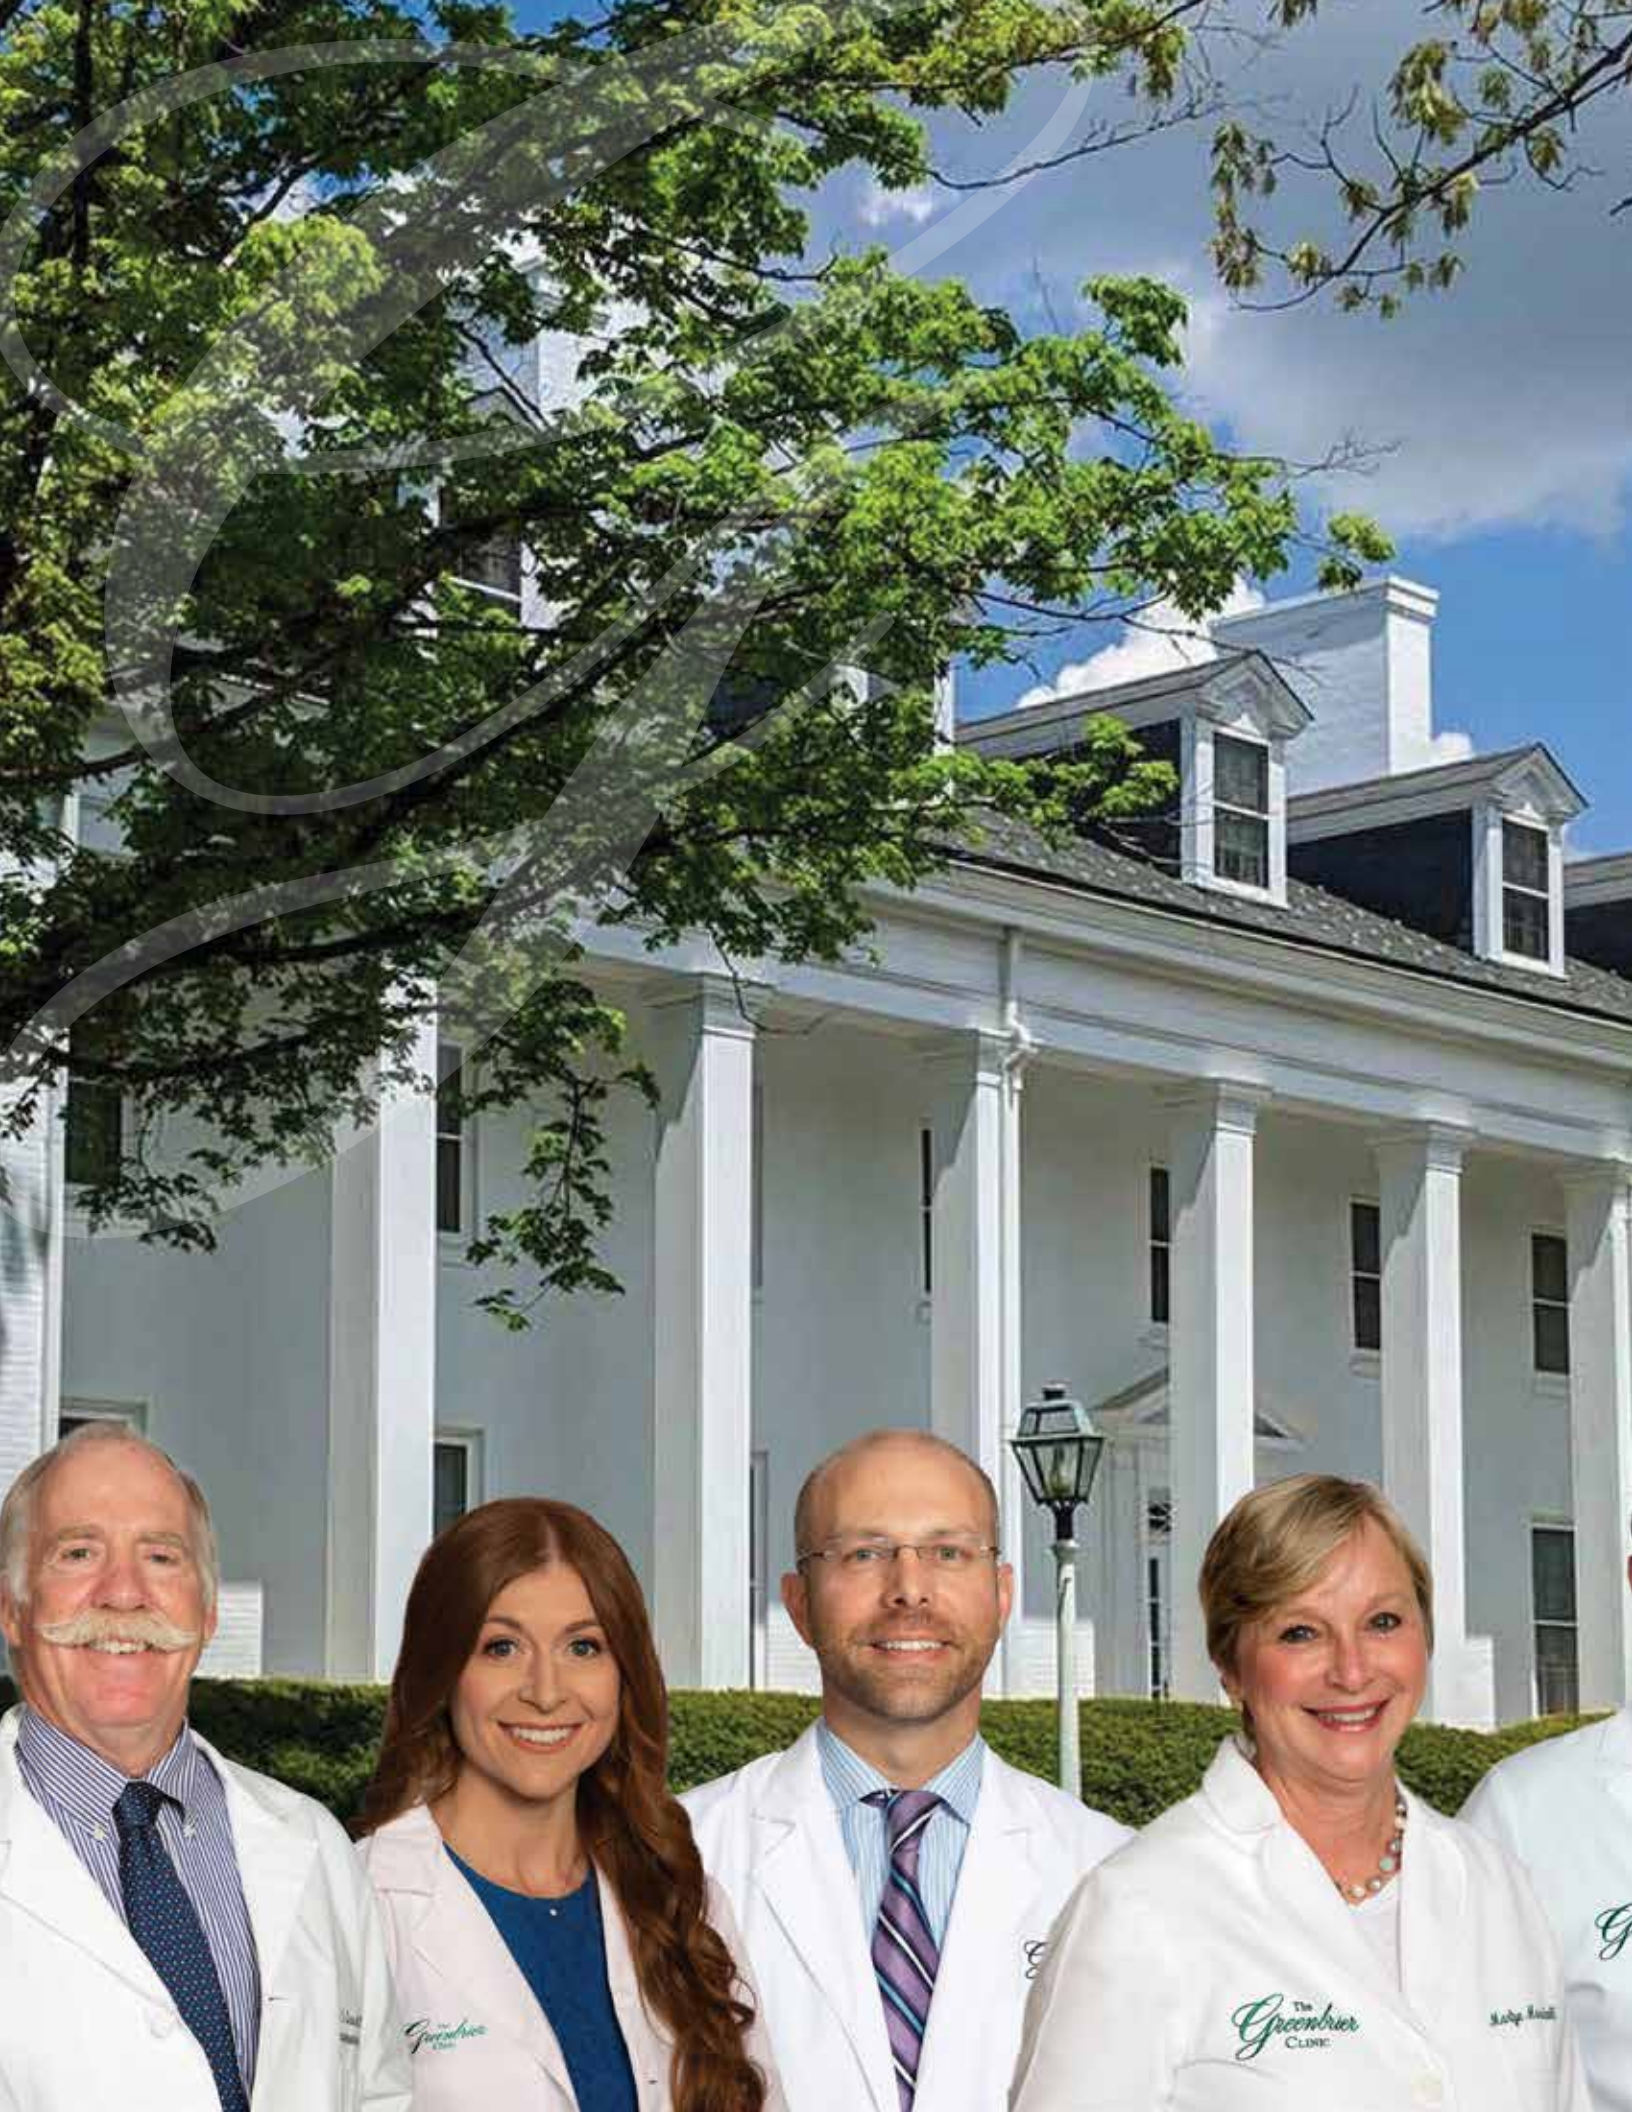

From sampling craft cocktails and watching a cabaret performance at Café Carleton to trying your luck at the blackjack table at The Casino Club at The Greenbrier, or dancing the night away at 42 Below, the entertainment at America's Resort™ lasts well into the Southern night.

The Casino Club at The Greenbrier

America's only private casino combines high-roller thrills and high-class style to create an unforgettable gaming experience with table games and slots. The FanDuel Sportsbook allows visitors to place wagers on their favorite sporting events around the world, while enjoying the action on 21 large televisions.
