

101 Main Street, West
White Sulphur Springs, WV 24986

greenbrier.com | 866.810.4235

Sales: 855.844.6931

 thegreenbrier

 the_greenbrier

 the_greenbrier

Fast Facts

Location

The Greenbrier spans 11,000 acres amid the breathtaking mountains Allegheny Mountains of West Virginia. Guests first came to White Sulphur Springs to “take the waters” of the iconic mineral springs that run through the property. Surrounded by natural beauty yet designed for connection, The Greenbrier’s setting inspires relaxation, focus, and memorable shared experiences.

Accommodations

Elegant details, refined comfort, and Dorothy Draper décor evoke the charm of a bygone era in our luxurious guest rooms, suites, cottages, and Estate Homes. At The Greenbrier, no two rooms are exactly alike- individually unique in form, function, and character.

- Total accommodations: 627
- Hotel rooms: 481
- Suites: 74
- Cottages and Estate Homes: 72

Dining/Food and Beverage

A tapestry of refined elegance and relaxed sophistication, The Greenbrier’s dining venues honor time-honored traditions while embracing inspired culinary innovation. Experience a mosaic of restaurants, lounges, and bars that define Southern resort dining at its finest.

RESTAURANTS

- Café Carleton
- Draper’s Café
- In-Fusion
- Main Dining Room
- Prime 44 West
- Sam Snead’s
- The Forum
- Tree Tops Café

LOUNGES

- 42 Below
- Greenbrier Royale
- JJ’s Sports Lounge
- Lobby Bar
- Slammin’ Sammy’s
- Twelve Oaks

OTHER

- Greenbrier Gourmet
- In-Room Dining
- Ryder Cup Snack Bar
- Springhouse Smoothie
- The Candy Maker
- The Pizza Shoppe

Meetings and Events

Frequented and adored by generations of luminaries, politicians, and executives, The Greenbrier has long been a place for grand gatherings. From intimate team building offsites to large-scale conferences, this is where ideas flow seamlessly, collaboration flourishes, and every meeting is a moment etched in history.

The resort's event venues offer a captivating blend of vintage glamour and modern sophistication, including classic boardrooms, a historic movie theater, creek-side gardens, azalea-hued ballrooms, mountain lodges, a stained-glass chapel, and a state-of-the-art sports performance center, each space as distinctive as the resort itself

- Total event space: 200,000 square feet
- Total meeting rooms: 40
- Largest ballroom: 16,128 square feet
- Exhibit hall: 16,554 square feet
- In-house Audio-Visual
- In-house Event Décor
- In-house Event Entertainment
- In-house Transportation

Activities at The Greenbrier

The Greenbrier offers an abundance of resort activities, providing guests with a diverse range of experiences.

Arcade	Croquet	Ice Skating	Scavenger Hunt
Archery	Escape Rooms	Kayaking	Shuffleboard
Biking	Falconry	Kids Adventure Zone	Sleigh Rides
Bowling	Fishing	Lawn Games	Shopping
Bubble Soccer	Fitness Center	Movies	Swimming
Bunker Tours	Fitness Classes	Off-road Driving	Teambuilding
Canopy Tours	Glass Blowing	Polaris Driving	Tennis
Carriage Rides	Hiking	Paintball	Tomahawk Throwing
Clay Shooting	History Tours	Pickleball	Yoga
Climbing Wall & Ropes	Horseback Riding	Rifle Shooting

The Greenbrier Spa

With a history dating back centuries, our legendary mineral springs are known for their therapeutic properties and restorative powers. The Greenbrier Spa pays homage to this heritage with signature treatments that combine the healing powers of the springs with the latest advancements in wellness.

- 40,000 square feet
- 42 treatment rooms

Golf at The Greenbrier

Play in the footsteps of legends such as Sam Snead, Tom Watson, Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, and Tiger Woods across four golf courses at The Greenbrier. Additionally, The Greenbrier Golf Academy offers private instruction, daily clinics, golf schools, and professional club fittings.

- The Old White- host of the PGA TOUR from 2010 through 2019
- The Greenbrier Course- renowned as the site of the 1979 Ryder Cup Matches and the 1994 Solheim Cup Matches
- The Meadows Course- rewarding challenge for golfers of all skill levels, paired with some of the most scenic views on the property
- The Ashford Short Course- 9-hole walking course, featuring designs from some of the

Casino Club

The Casino Club at The Greenbrier is an elegant, smoke-free environment that mixes world-class gaming, live entertainment, international cuisines, and designer boutiques and features 180 state-of-the-art slot machines and 30 table games, including blackjack, craps, roulette, and baccarat. The FanDuel Sportsbook gives guests an opportunity for live wagering on sports around the world. The Casino Club is set aside exclusively for the enjoyment of resort guests and members.

Getting Here

Reaching The Greenbrier has never been easier. Since welcoming guests in 1778, travelers have arrived by rail, road, and air—and today, every option is convenient and well-connected. The Greenbrier is within easy reach of major East Coast cities.

AIR

- Greenbrier Valley Airport (LWB)- Lewisburg, WV
 - 12 miles (15 minutes) from The Greenbrier
- Roanoke-Blacksburg Regional Airport (ROA)- Roanoke, VA
 - 70 miles (75 minutes) from The Greenbrier

RAIL

- Amtrak service from Washington, D.C., New York City, and Chicago
- White Sulphur Springs station (WSS) located at The Greenbrier entrance

